

Runanga Whakapiki Ake I Te Hauora O Aotearoa
Health Promotion Forum of New Zealand

Panui – Nau Mai, Haere Mai

Kia orana, Malo e lelei, Ni Sa Bula, Fakalofa lahi atu, Talofa lava!

The Health Promotion Forum invites you to attend this seminar on Thursday, 01 April 2010.

Date: 1 April, 2010

Venue: Christchurch Park Event and Functions Centre, 250 Westminister Street

Time: 9.30am - 2.30pm

Cost: HPF Members - $60.75. Non-Members - $67.50

RSVP: Please email sal@hauora.co.nz to book your place and for catering purposes There are only a limited number of places available so early registration is recommended!

Topic: Pacific models and health promotion

The relevance of Pacific health models to health promotion will be examined.

Presenters are:

Fuimaono Karl Pulotu-Endemann

Fuimaono is a Pacific health consultant, with many years of professional experience in public health and mental health. He has led the development of Fonofale, a Pacific health model. Fuimaono will present on Fonofale as a Pacific health model.

Sione Tu'itahi

Sione is the Workforce Development and Communications Manager, Health Promotion Forum of New Zealand. He is also the Acting Director Pasifika at Massey University, leading the implementation of the Pasifika@Massey Strategy. Sione will present on Fonua, a Pasifika health promotion model he has developed and will further interrogate in his current doctoral research.

Ieti Lima

Ieti is Senior Health Promotion Strategist – Pacific at the Health Promotion Forum. He is a Social Science and health researcher. He is currently a Senior Researcher on a multi-government agency research project led by the Ministry of Pacific Island Affairs. Ieti will present an overview of the need for, and relevance of Pacific health models, such as Fonofale and Fonua which Fuimaono and Sione will present, respectively.

Workshop Objectives

- To examine the relevance of Pacific health models for health promotion work
- How to apply Pacific models to health promotion

Learning Outcomes

As a result of participating in this workshop, participants will be able to:

- demonstrate an understanding of at least two Pacific health models, and
- how to apply them in their health promotion work.

GENERAL INFORMATION

This workshop is collaboration between the Health Promotion Forum and the Pasifika@Massey Directorate, Massey University.

Health Promotion Forum of New Zealand, PO Box 99 064, Newmarket, Auckland